

Anza Borrego Desert State Park

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Roads and Resources

Seasonal Senior Maintenance Aide

$17.15 to $19.34 per hour

Anza Borrego Desert State Park is now accepting applications for Roads and Resources Seasonal Senior Maintenance Aides. This position will work to provide excellent customer service by performing high quality resource protection.

Duties include: monitoring over 500 miles of dirt roads for illegal off road activities; installing and maintaining road signs, vehicle barriers, gates, locks, and fencing; removing illegal rock fire rings; picking up trash; repairing resource damage from vehicles traveling on non-system routes of travel; providing visitors with park information; reporting damage; using of hand and power tools, for which the employee has been trained and approved to use.

This position often works with minimal supervision and may be required to lead volunteer work crews who are accomplishing projects including resource damage repairs listed above.

Earn while you learn about exciting career opportunities with California State Parks. Minimum qualifications include: willingness to accept and benefit from training in resource protection work; follow simple directions and work cooperatively with others; perform heavy sustained physical work; and use appropriate tools, supplies and equipment. Possession of a valid driver's license is required. Safe driving record and the willingness to conform to departmental uniform requirements are essential.

Resume and/or State of California Employment Application (STD 678) may be submitted by mail to: California State Parks – Roads and Resources, 200 Palm Canyon Drive, Borrego Springs, Ca. 92004, Attention: Ray Lennox. For additional information please contact 760-767-4037. Applications may also be acquired from the State Personnel website at: <https://jobs.ca.gov/pdf/std678.pdf>.